

Angela Titzrath

Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees
H2Global Stiftung

Angela Titzrath is Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees of the H2Global Foundation.

She serves as board member and Chairman of the board at Hamburger Hafen und Logistik AG (HHLA). From 2012 until 2014 she served as member of the board at Deutsche Post AG where she was responsible for the Human Resources Department. After that she held positions at the supervisory board of different companies and organizations and worked as consultant and lecturer.

Before that she held executive positions in varied companies on an international level. She worked as CEO of Mercedes-Benz Credit of Canada and CEO of Mercedes-Benz Credit of North America in the US as well as Europe CEO of Mercedes-Benz Bank. She led the Daimler Chrysler Merger for the service sector and shareholdings and was responsible for the corporate strategy.

From 2002 onwards, Angela Titzrath was commercial director at the production plant Mercedes-Benz in Spain and afterwards became a board member for the Department Sales, Aftersales and Logistics for the bus division at Daimler AG.

Angela Titzrath is a member of the supervisory board at Talanx AG, Evonik Industries AG and Deutsche Lufthansa AG.

She studied economic sciences and Romanesque philology after which she started her career as Head of Operatives and Strategic Controlling at Mercedes-Benz in Rome.